

This week at Ludlow Elementary School

It is so good to be back at LES. This was my first week back working half time and it was wonderful to see all the students and the staff.

I want to thank all the parents, students, staff and community members for their kind and caring thoughts and prayers throughout my medical leave. I appreciated the notes, calls, and cards; they really lifted my spirits daily.

This week the school had a "Junk Jam" assembly performed by Donald Knaack. This performance was part our school-wide unit of study on protecting our environment and our resources. There was a good turnout of students and parents on the Wednesday night performance.

The Scholastic Book Fair went very well this week and our students made some fine choices of reading materials. I would like to thank the parents and staff for supporting this event with their time and effort.

On Wednesday evening the Ludlow School Board appointed Mr. Rich LeTourneau as school board member to fill the board vacancy left by Beth Merrill. Welcome aboard, Mr. LeTourneau!

This past week the weather has been unseasonably mild and the students have really enjoyed their recess time, but we know how quickly the weather does change and students must be prepared and have proper clothing for recess. It is very important that all students go out and play in the fresh air, so please make sure your child is properly dressed for our winter weather.

Next week:

Dec. 7th — Report Cards

Dec. 8th — Honors Recognition Award Assembly at 1:45 PM in the MPR

Dec. 11th — Ski Rental Boot fitting at 1:00 PM in the MPR
